Citadel Enterprises Receives Construction/Real Estate 1773 Chamber Award

MOUNT PLEASANT, S.C. (May 26, 2011) – Citadel Enterprises, Inc. has been selected as the winner of a 1773 Chamber Award. The Mount Pleasant based remodeling company won in the Construction/Real Estate category. “The entire family of Citadel Enterprises is honored and humbled by this distinction,” said Pete Loy, President of Citadel Enterprises. “Doing business in the greater Charleston area is a privilege so we always try to return part of what we earn by giving back to the community. We look forward to the next twenty years.”

The 1773 Chamber Award is given to organizations in the Charleston region that best exemplify the Charleston Metro Chamber of Commerce’s core values of leadership, relevance, integrity, diversity and innovation. “As a group we have worked hard for many years to refine our systems, to maximize customer satisfaction, explore new segments of business, and focus on overall quality,” said Loy.

By winning top in its category, Citadel Enterprises is now eligible to win the 1773 Chamber Award of the Year which will be announced next month.

Citadel Enterprises provides remodeling, repair and design-build services with an emphasis on trust, service and neatness for the client who desires to work with an award winning and industry leading firm.
