Citadel Enterprises' President Named One of Charleston's Most Influential Home + Design Professionals

MOUNT PLEASANT, S.C. – Pete Loy, President of Citadel Enterprises, was recently honored by Home + Design Magazine as one of Charleston's Most Influential Home + Design Professionals. He is one of 40 area architects, builders and interior designers to receive the acknowledgment. "I am humbled that Citadel Enterprises is in company with the other recognized professionals," said Loy. "It's an honor to be acknowledged for the basics that are part of our every day mission - hard work and attention to detail."

In the article published in the Summer 2010 edition of the magazine, Loy talks about his lifelong interest in the construction business and the establishment of Citadel Enterprises in 1991. He also discusses his involvement in several community activities including the Coastal Conservation Association and the South Carolina Governor's Cup Billfishing Board. Additionally, he credits his staff for their professionalism and commitment to providing excellent service and a quality product. "It is important to me to go to sleep each night knowing I am doing the best I can to satisfy clients, and to take care of my employees, trusted subcontractors and vendors. Business has become much more fast-paced since I started Citadel Enterprises, but the fundamentals have and will never change...honesty, hard work, and follow-up," said Loy.

Citadel Enterprises, Inc. provides remodeling, repair and design-build services with an emphasis on trust, service and neatness for the client who desires to work with an award winning and industry leading firm.
